One of the fastest growing economies in the world, Morocco is earmarked as 'the next Dubai'. This guide for investors, holiday homebuyers and relocators covers everything from where, what and how to buy, to how to live and work in Morocco and how to take the culture shock in your stride. It includes regional and property hotspot profiles. It shows how to find and buy your property, with a step-by-step guide to the purchasing, financial and taxation systems. It provides an overview of the types of property available, from riads and rural homes to apartments and newly built developments. AUTHOR BIOG: An experienced journalist and writer, Leaonne Hall is an expert on the overseas property market. She has written extensively for a number of magazines and has produced numerous editions of the Red Guides to buying property all over the world. Author of Buying a Property in Eastern Europe she specialises in new and developing markets.
