"While driving with your friends or family someplace far from home, your radiator starts steaming. You manage to find a gas station in a small town where they can fix your car, but it's going to take a few hours. You ask the mechanic if there's any place to get something to eat, and he points across the road to Moe's Cafe, a real dump. You don't have much choice, so you head inside and take a seat at the first booth on the left." So begins Moe's Cafe, one of 48 innovative and intriguing prompts for student writing. These classroom-tested prompts put students in a place or in front of a character and ask them to describe what they "see." The thinking, writing, and scribbling they do for the prompts inspires them to create their own stories and poems. After writing 90-word mini-stories, students read a short story or watch a film scene to help them expand on their own creative works. A section of longer readings models writing strategies. The lessons and activities reinforce and develop skills defined by the National Council of Teachers of English as appropriate for students in grades 6–12. 8½" x 11". Good Year. ©2007. GDY402.

From reader reviews:

Sandra Wright:

Nowadays reading books are more than want or need but also work as a life style. This reading addiction give you lot of advantages. The benefits you got of course the knowledge even the information inside the book that improve your knowledge and information. The information you get based on what kind of guide you read, if you want drive more knowledge just go with schooling books but if you want sense happy read one along with theme for entertaining such as comic or novel. The particular Moe's Cafe is kind of reserve which is giving the reader erratic experience.

Jason Braden:

Playing with family within a park, coming to see the coastal world or hanging out with buddies is thing that usually you may have done when you have spare time, after that why you don't try matter that really opposite from that. 1 activity that make you not feeling tired but still relaxing, trilling like on roller coaster you already been ride on and with addition details. Even you love Moe's Cafe, you are able to enjoy both. It is good combination right, you still want to miss it? What kind of hang-out type is it? Oh occur its mind hangout guys. What? Still don't have it, oh come on its known as reading friends.

Christopher Melendez:

Reading a book for being new life style in this year; every people loves to examine a book. When you examine a book you can get a lot of benefit. When you read publications, you can improve your knowledge, simply because book has a lot of information on it. The information that you will get depend on what sorts of book that you have read. In order to get information about your review, you can read education books, but if you want to entertain yourself read a fiction books, these us novel, comics, as well as soon. The Moe's Cafe provide you with new experience in looking at a book.

Nancy Barry:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Moe's Cafe can make you feel more interested to read.
