Screaming his way to the top...

No one can change the visions of Morgan Desario's past, or what he saw the night his dad died. Marijuana helps the pain his singing can't numb. When his heavy metal band gets signed, he's flying high. But fame and fortune do nothing to take away the humiliation he faces every time he gets stuck in a memory.

When their morals slip and their sins collide...

They share the same lifestyle, but couldn't be more different. She's anti-drug and he's all for smoking pot. A night of passion bonds them together, but their connection is strained when their pasts are unleashed. On tour, Morgan's sins flourish. At home, Shay's morals bend. A sharp line separates what's right and wrong that both are afraid to cross.
