World War II Primary Sources Carole Marsh

The World War II Primary Sources is a pack of 20 primary source documents that are relevant to the history of World War II.

Primary Source Packs include more than 20 historical documents to help students to think critically and analytically. Interpret events, and question the various perspectives of history. These documents provide teachers and students with tools they need to integrate and evaluate other forms of information in order to deepen their overall understanding of important historical events.

Your students will:

...think critically and analytically, interpret events, and question various perspectives of history.

...participate in active learning by creating their own interpretations instead of memorizing facts and a writer s interpretations.

...integrate and evaluate information provided in diverse media formats to deepen their understanding of historical events.

...experience a more relevant and meaningful learning experience.

Each primary resource is printed on sturdy 8.5 X 11 cardstock.
