NASA astronauts and Soviet cosmonauts have said they saw "something," Senator Dennis Kucinich famously said he believes UFOs are real, and just about everybody has heard rumors that the US military and intelligence agencies are "hiding something." In this book, a college professor pulls together what some consider to be the "best evidence" that aliens exist and have contacted Earth. He presents various theories based on unexplained phenomena and artifacts, the pyramids, crop circles, quotes from astronauts, "photos" of UFOs, and more; then he asks, what does it add up to? This book is intended to present all the mystery without sensationalism.
