Life on the Refrigerator Door

By Alice Kuipers

A book about finding time for the people we love, when we got it so little. ... The book presents an intimate portrait of the relationship between overworked, suffering from breast cancer mother and her fifteen-year-old daughter. This beautiful story, constructed of sticky notes on the refrigerator door, simply, yet authentically and bitterly describes... the life. The commonplaceness, the hurry, but also a common struggle with a difficult problems, the deep emotions that are not always expressed, and the different roles that we play. The novel with its simplicity and realism in an unusual way helps reflect on what is most important in life and on what is proper to find the time.
