Infinite (Strange and Beautiful, Book 1) Brittney Musick

High school is scary enough, but it's even scarier when most of your classmates think you're weird and you can't even count on your siblings to make the transition easier. This is the problem Silly Granger faces as she's thrown into a new world, filled with freedom, expectations and problems unlike any she's had before. On top of contending with the resident bully and unexpected changes at home, she's faced with trying to make sense of the opposite sex. With her best friend by her side, Silly's beliefs and optimism about herself and life are tested as she tries to survive ninth grade.
